Re: U.S.A. v. Roman Vega

Docket # CR 07-707 (ARR)

Dear Counsel Fishbein:

I am in receipt of your letter dated April 25, 2011 (which was handed to me on April 29, 2011 at 01:15 pm), wherein you claim not to have received my activation e-mail. I thank you for bringing a bit of levity into my day. Perhaps if you were to familiarize yourself with the case you would see the government alleges I am a computer programming impresario.

I enclosed the CORRLINKS/TRULINKS printouts that shows with no doubt that your e-mail was registered in CORRLINKS/TRULINKS B.O.P. system which fact, due to the nature of the functionality of the abovementioned system, resulted, automatically, in the activation of an e-mail request being sent to your account mefishbein@debevoise.com. It was done twice: on 04/14/11 & on 04/25/11. As you know CORRLINKS/TRULINCS documents are DOJ property and thus admissible as exhibit(s) in a dispute. Further, tracing the path to your email is so simple Helen Keller could do it. If you insist on this disingenuous course of action with the court, I shall seek sanctions. Friend or no friend, Judge Ross will be forced to take issue with you, regarding any mendacity you wish to bring forward in her court, that is later proven to be untrue. You have my word I will prove it.

Nice try counselor.

Roman Vega

Dear Mr. Vega:

I received your later [sic.] dated April 20, 2011 regarding your attempt to contact me through the CORRLINKS/TRULINCS system. Unfortunately, I never received any email communications from you and was unaware, until today, that you had been trying to reach me.

I asked an associate to contact the MDC this morning. We were told to advise you either to try sending your email again or, if that fails, to contact the IT administrator at the MDC to see if there is something wrong with your account.

I look forward to assisting you with your case and sincerely regret any misunderstandings that may arisen due to this technical glitch.

Best regards,

[SIGNATURE]

Dear Counsel Fishbein and Judge Ross:

During the status hearing on April 12, 2011, I stated to Judge Ross, that I would not have an objection to a C.J.A. stand-by counsel as long as the counsel agrees to communicate with me, via surface mail, and through CORRLINKS/TRULINCS e-mail system which is established in Metropolitan Detention Center Brooklyn where I'm warehoused.

When I met with counsel Fishbein at the courthouse on April 12, 2011, I informed counsel that it would be my pleasure to accept him as stand-by C.J.A. lawyer under the same conditions as set forth supra. Counsel Fishbein had no objection to my request.

Unfortunately, my CORRLINKS/TRULINCS request sent to counsel Fishbein at mefishbein@debevoise.com has been waiting unactivated since 04/14/11 10:06 EST.

I would appreciate the court taking notice of these facts. The same dilatory tactics that have led to eight years (8) of torture by previous counsel are continued by counsel Fishbein.

If counsel Fishbein will not communicate on or before 4/25/11 I will fire him and demand new C.J.A. Counsel so I may be able to move my motion to withdraw the guilty plea. I note I have never seen my P.S.R.

I would appreciate a response forthwith. If these issues are not settled by May 1, 2011 I will file mandamus in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and communicate counsel Fishbein's ethical lapse to the First Department Disciplinary Committee.

Very truly yours,

Roman Vega
